

European Youth Award - Call for Entries 2012

Social Media & Communication Channels Info for Partners and Friends

1) Text for Newsletter or Website

European Youth Award 2012

Call for Projects

Registration open until July 16 2012

www.eu-youthaward.org

The European Youth Award selects and promotes best European innovative students and young entrepreneurs who creatively use Internet and mobiles to create outstanding digital contents and work together to tackle some of the most urgent challenges we are facing today (viz. UN Millennium Development Goals MDGs).

Innovative students & young people under 30 can enter their projects (for free) until July 16th within the 6 following Categories:

1. Fight Poverty, Hunger and Disease
2. Education for All
3. Power 2 Women
4. Create your Culture
5. Go Green
6. Pursue the Truth

The Winners will be invited to present their project and meet other engaged people during a 3-day Festival, from 22-24 November 2012, in Graz, Austria.

Apply once, win twice!

EYA is a partner Award of the World Summit Youth Award (www.youthaward.org) which means that Europe based participants have also a chance to be selected for the world-wide contest...and be invited to Montreal, Canada too.

www.eu-youthaward.org | www.facebook.com/youthaward | <https://twitter.com/#!/youthaward>

2) Facebook (Exemple)

Are you a young creative person up to 30? Are you involved in a youth initiative producing outstanding digital content towards achieving the UN Millennium Development Goals? Show your e-Power and submit your project to the European Youth Award (EYA)! www.eu-youthaward.org

3)Twitter (Exemple)

Take a chance to show YOU´re the best #MDG e-content producer: apply for @youthaward 2012! C U in Graz, UNESCO City of Design. <http://bit.ly/KDNjCb>