What every EVS volunteer should know before arriving in Steinfurt district...

Your accommodation

a volunteer is accommodated, according to the project, in Ibbenburen, Westerkappeln, Tecklenburg, or in Saerbeck in a host family or in a flat community together with other volunteers with all needed equipment. Each volunteer has a single, middle-sized, fully furnished room. A kitchen and a bathroom are shared with other volunteers. The flats are located in the center of towns.

The ways to come to us

arrival by airplane

from the airport Düsseldorf or Dortmund take a train to the central railway station in Osnabrück.

If you will come to the airport FMO Münster/ Osnabrück.

arrival by train or bus

please choose the central railway station or central bus station in Osnabrück. The stations are located in the centre of the city.

Public transport

each volunteer gets a bus ticket for the whole period of the project. It is valid in the Steinfurt district. The ticket is used to get to work, for a language course or for traveling in a spare time. Volunteers have a bus connection to every town, from the smallest village to big cities such as Osnabrück or Münster.

Working hours

30-35 hours per week

Holidays

2 days per month

Food-money and pocket-money

there will be transferred the food-money and pocket-money to the volunteer's bank-account at the end of each month of project. The bank-account will be opened extra for every volunteer.

Language training course

the language course will be arranged in cooperation with local language schools.

Entertainment

the volunteer's work is not only connected with duties. It is also the time to meet new friends. It is time for fun, sport and tourism. The Steinfurt district gives a chance to spend great time. There are a lot of sport clubs, disco, theatres, cinemas, concerts, cafes and pubs. More you can find in Osnabrück or in Münster.

Insurance

Volunteers are covered by a group insurance plan specifically designed to protect participants in the European Voluntary Service programme during their period of voluntary activity. The cover is provided free to the volunteers of charge.
